

Josephus, the Emperors, and the City of Rome: From Hostage to Historian (Ancient Judaism and Early Christianity (Arbeiten Zur Geschichte Des Antiken Judentums Und Des Urchristentums))

In Josephus, the Emperors, and the City of Rome William den Hollander places under the microscope the Judaeans own account of the latter part of his life, following his first encounters with the Romans. Episodes of Josephus life, such as his embassy to Rome prior to the outbreak of the 1st Judaeans Revolt, his prophetic pronouncement of Vespasians imminent rise to the imperial throne, and his time in the Roman prisoner-of-war camp, are subjected to rigorous analysis and evaluated against the broader ancient evidence by the application of a vivid historical imagination. Den Hollander also explores at great length the relationships formed by Josephus with the Flavian emperors and other individuals of note within the Roman army camp and, later, in the city of Rome. He builds solidly on recent trends in Josephan research that emphasize Josephus distance from the corridors of power.
