

A Lady in the Saddle

In the most remote area of our country lies a place where the head waters of the Yellowstone and Snake River rise and flow either west to the Great Columbia River and onto the Pacific Ocean or to the north by the Yellowstone River to the Missouri River and then to the Mighty Mississippi River to the Gulf of Mexico. It is here that women and men have come to seek the solitude that comes with quietness. They welcome you and me into this place, sharing its magnificence.
