

Beyond Winning: The Timeless Wisdom of Great Philosopher Coaches

In Beyond Winning, Gary Walton reveals the thoughts and teachings that made six coaches successful in sport. Readers get an intimate look at how each of these philosopher coaches followed a different path in his pursuit of excellence - Vince Lombardi, Woody Hayes, John Wooden, James Doc Counsilman, Brutus Hamilton, and Percy Cerutti. Walton devotes a chapter to each of these coaches and focuses on their ability to manage and motivate winning teams. While he notes the coaches win / loss records and contributions to technical advances in their sports, he stresses their more significant contributions as educators and as role models.
