Wild: From Lost to Found on the Pacific Crest Trail by Cheryl Strayed is a memoir that details the journey of a single woman on the Pacific Crest Trail on a search for meaning after devastating personal losses. In 1995, four years after the death of her mother, and recently divorced, Cheryl Strayed backpacked into the wilderness unprepared for the journey that awaited. This review includes a detailed summary of her tale, followed by a brief analysis. Cheryl Strayed has written essays for the New York Times, The Washington Post Magazine, Salon, Vogue and The Sun. She is also the author of the Dear Sugar advice column and co-host of the WBUR podcast by the same name. She has a bachelors from the University of Minnesota and an MFA in fiction from Syracuse University. Wild is a New York Times bestselling memoir and was selected for Oprahs Book Club. It has also been adapted as a movie starring Reese Witherspoon. Read more....
