

Bridget (The Bridget Series Book 1)

A Romance novel set in the late 1800s, Bridget is the first of a series of 3 books in The Bridget Series, geared towards tweens to young adults. The second book, a direct continuation of this book is called Bridget & David. The third and final book, Endless Love, is a direct continuation of Bridget & David. In Bridget, readers are introduced to the title character. Orphaned as a young child, Bridget feigned for herself as a street urchin until she was put on the Orphan Train, and a family who didn't really want her, agreed to take her in. Smart and determined, she managed to grow into a young woman of promise. Having fallen in love with the man of her dreams, Bridget carried with her a secret. Then a man from her past and a conniving romantic rival threatened her life and happiness. Book 2, Bridget & David is a direct continuation of Bridget. While romances flourish, intrigue, sabotage and revenge come into play. The growing town of Canyonville advances with the rapidly changing times, while a hail of gunfire will forever change Bridget's life.
