

Abstract Aliases (A Bodies of Art Mystery Book 3)

USA TODAY BESTSELLING AUTHOR

Filled with twists and turns, action, art heists, and plenty of chemistry between the very handsome Jack Hawkes and daring narrator Laurel Beachamrich descriptions and a discriminating tone of detailAbstract Aliases continues an excellent collection from Ritter Ames. Girl with Book Lungs Abstract clues lead to new questions. New leads turn to dead ends. A heist plot ties to forgeries. Adversaries resurface twisting an already complicated case. And art recovery expert Laurel Beacham must not only outwit criminals, but keep her wits around Jack Hawkes cheeky ego. Before the criminals they were tracking headed underground, evidence pointed toward two organizations as key to an epic art heist. Despite their best efforts, Laurel and her team havent caught a break in monthseven Jacks unofficial intel stuttered to a halt. But on New Years, as Big Bens bell tolls midnight, the guilty return and nowhere is safe. A source in Rome is killed within hours. Other allies are attacked in Rome and London, and a contact in Germany reports dangerous shadows closing in. The nearer the answers, the higher the stakes. Worse, Jack may not be the only one Laurel must learn to trust to avoid another brush with death.
