

Delphi Complete Works of Robert E. Howard (Illustrated) (Series Four Book 21)

Widely regarded as the father of the sword and sorcery genre, Robert E. Howard produced a diverse body of works, demonstrating his inventive genius with exciting tales of Conan the Barbarian, Kull, Solomon Kane, Sailor Steve Costigan and a host of other captivating creations. This comprehensive eBook presents the most complete edition possible of Howards fiction, with numerous illustrations, many rare short stories appearing in digital print for the first time, informative introductions and the usual Delphi bonus material. (Version 1) * Beautifully illustrated with images relating to Howards life and works * Concise introductions to the novels and other texts * ALL five novels, with individual contents tables * Images of how the books were first printed, giving your eReader a taste of the original pulp magazines * Features 199 short stories the largest collection of Howards fiction ever compiled in a single publication * Many rare tales appearing here for the first time in digital publishing * Excellent formatting of the texts * Special alphabetical index for the short stories * A generous selection of poetry and non-fiction * Easily locate the poems or short stories you want to read * Includes Barlows tributary poem to Howard * Scholarly ordering of texts into chronological order and literary genres

Please note: an actual complete works of Howard is not possible due to the copyright status and scarcity of some stories. When new texts become available in your public domain, they will be added to the eBook as a free update. Please visit www.delphiclassics.com to browse through our range of exciting titles
