

So Fey: Queer Fairy Fiction

Twenty-two captivating stories where queer culture and fey folklore meet! The legends of Fairyland tell that one should never taste the food or sip the drink, or else risk being caught there forever. But the tempting morsels in So Fey: Queer Fairy Fiction are irresistible! Lambda Award-finalist Steve Berman brings together acclaimed fantasy writers with some of the brightest names in LGBT fiction to create tales that are moving and magical. These stories of romance and grief, adolescence and identity, struggle and hope will enchant readers who long for a fantastic escape--and a wonderful twist! One sample of this bewitching treat is sure to trap you in its pages! From the pains of loss in Holly Blacks The Coat of Stars to dealing with issues of identity in Richard Bowess The Wands Boy to Melissa Scotts look at the dangers of love in Mister Seeley So Fey takes you into worlds that are at once amazing and familiar. With tales that tear and tug at the heart but never cease to enchant, this exciting and unique collection will long last in the minds of readers. Other authors featured in So Fey: Queer Fairy Fiction include: Tom Cardamone Catherine Lundoff Craig Laurance Gidney Ruby deBrazier and Cassandra Clare Sarah Monette Kenneth D.
