

Women Writers of the First World War: An Annotated Bibliography

They also serve who only stand and wait The idea of there being a womens writing during the First World War is often dismissed. The war, the story goes, was a masculine domain, and as women did not fight, it is also assumed that they were excluded from a war experience. This bibliography challenges that view by listing and annotating hundreds of published books, articles, memoirs, diaries and letters written by women during the First World War. Included are: * Virginia Woolf * Katherine Mansfield * G.B Stern * Brenda Girvin * known and unknown autobiographers and diarists * writers of pro and anti-war propoganda * journal and magazine articles * literary, cultural and historical criticism
