

Diary Planner 2011

This is the diary for those who swim against the tide. The Diary Planner is a weekly diary with street art, photographs, illustrations, and more all submitted by young artists and activists from around the world. The diary is designed for students in its reflection of counterculture, dissent, and protest. It presents a quirky and creative way to illustrate the injustice, success, irony, humor, and tragedy of politics, love, and life in the world today. Includes international festivals, events, activist organizations, and subway maps including New York.
